Mare Care _____ day and _____ wet (Foal at side) Mare must have negative culture by a veterinarian at owner's expense. We prefer to have culture taken while mare is in heat at ranch.

Ranch will provide owners with an invoice for live cover mare charges, stud fee's and other charges. The invoice is payable upon receipt and prior to the mare's departure, unless alternate arrangements have been made. While mare is at Reese Creek Ranch/ Ranch owners shall not be liable for any sickness, disease, theft, death, and or injury. All risks are assumed by mare owner.

Emergency Care: If medical care is needed the ranch owner will attempt to contact owner directly. If owner is not available, the ranch owner will exercise best efforts on behalf and expense. Owner agrees to pay all said charges.

Right To Lien: Reese Creek Ranch has the right to lien for the board amount and other costs incurred, and shall have the right to retain horse until indebtedness is paid in full as set forth by the laws of the state of Oregon.

Mares must arrive at ranch in good condition. They must be well mannered and not pose a threat to Stallion, other horses and ranch employee's. Reese Creek Ranch reserves the right to refuse service to mares that are sick, in ill health, or show dangerous behavior. Difficult or problem mares will be referred for collection and insemination as mutually agreed to by the parties. All mares to be live cover will be cultured and checked for breeding soundness before being bred.

It is understood that mare proves barren, aborts her foal, or foal is still born, (Foal unable to stand and nurse within 24 hrs of birth) a return breeding shall be granted before June 30th of following season with payment of all booking fee's mare care charges, ect...commensurate with that season's schedule of charges. Written certification by a licensed Veterinarian must be provided to ranch that mare as slipped or produced a non viable foal. Should mare owner decide not to re-breed the same mare; mare owner may substitute with another mare, or sell breeding to an approved mare by stallion owner. There shall be no right to return if mare owner sells mare. Should stallion die, become injured (unable to breed) or infertile all guarantees are void and no monies are refunded.

All mare to be checked in foal by a licensed veterinarian prior to departure form ranch. Instances where alternative arrangements are mutually made between parties, the mare owner agrees to deliver to ranch evidence from a licensed veterinarian within 15 days of departure of all agreements are void.

Fee's as follows:
